

VICE SQUAD RAIDS THREE HOTELS; ARRESTING CLERKS

Proprietor of Rooming House Also Taken on Charge of Conducting Disorderly Place.

Guests in three hotels and a rooming house in the Tenderloin were rudely awakened shortly after 2 o'clock this morning by gruffly voiced policemen who placed clerks under arrest, charging them with conducting disorderly houses. The visit to each hotel was followed by screams of women, slamming of doors and hasty exits by partly clad guests.

Sergt. Donnelly of Deputy Police Commissioner Dunham's Vice Squad was in charge of the raiders. They descended first upon the Hotel Frederick at No. 210 West Fifty-sixth Street and arrested Frederick Coffin and Vincent Nicholas. They then went to a rooming house at No. 32 West Sixtieth Street, conducted by Nicholas's wife, Lucile, and arrested her.

At the Hotel Maryland, No. 104 West Forty-ninth Street, James Regan and Norris Williams were arrested and at Times Square Hotel,

No. 206 West Forty-third Street, Albert Tayas was taken.

This morning the six prisoners were arraigned before Magistrate Corrikan in the West Side Court and held in bail of $500 each.

PRICES ARE BOOSTED AT THE CHILDS RESTAURANTS

Most Dishes Up Five Cents Per Portion Since 1 o'clock This Morning.

Bringing the increasing cost of living home to thousands who never deal directly with the grocer or the butcher, all the Childs restaurants here advanced prices on meat, eggs and some other dishes five cents at 1 o'clock this morning.

Bacon and eggs and ham and eggs now cost 30 cents instead of 25; a small steak is 30 cents instead of 25; plain omelette has jumped from 15 cents to 20 cents. Even the lowly corned beef hash has advanced from 15 cents to 20. Eggs are 5 cents an order higher, no matter how prepared.

All pies from now on are 10 cents a cut, but instead of seven cuts to the pie there will be six.

For more than a week 10 cents has been charged for coffee with cream, which used to be 5 cents. A cup of coffee with milk still may be had for a nickel.

TODY HAMILTON AUCTION.

Curios That Late Showman Gathered Will Be Sold To-Morrow.

Effects that belonged to the late Richard P. (Tody) Hamilton, press agent for many years for the Barnum and Bailey Circus, have been sent by his widow to be sold at auction to-morrow afternoon in the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms, Fourth Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street.

The offerings comprise curios gathered by Mr. Hamilton in his wide travels. Among them are cloisonne vases, a Chinese chair inlaid with mother-of-pearl, a Japanese bronze koro with birds and trees in relief, the cover surmounted by dragons and clouds, and a watchman's "coon creek" or rattle used in Birmingham, England, 200 years ago. The effects will be on exhibition in the auction rooms to-day and to-morrow until the sale at 2 o'clock.

Maid of Mist Breaks Propeller. NIAGARA FALLS, Oct. 4.—The Maid of the Mist, the steamer which makes the circuit at the foot of Niagara Falls, broke its propeller shaft when a short distance from the Horseshoe Falls late yesterday. The passengers were taken off in lifeboats and there was no panic. The steamer is anchored a short distance below the falls and is in no danger.

Chemist Dies of Burns. N. C. Peck, thirty-two, of No. 59 Trask Avenue, Bayonne, N. J., died in the Bayonne City Hospital early to-day as a result of burns he received last night while making a test in the laboratories of the Texas Oil Company, where he was employed as a chemist.

Why pay for duty—when you buy cigarettes?

Import duty doesn't add a thing to the quality or taste of a cigarette—it's just a valueless expense.

Piedmonts pay no duty—because they are Virginia tobacco—ALL Virginia—grown right here in the United States. Golden, lively and mellow as Virginia sunshine itself.

Tobacco experts will tell you that Virginia is the best cigarette tobacco that grows on earth.

The Cigarette of Quality

NOTE.—The duty on the Turkish tobacco that goes into a 5c package of so-called blended cigarettes is greater than the cost of the tobacco itself! But Piedmonts, made of highest-grade Virginia tobacco, have all the value in the cigarette—because there is no duty on Virginia tobacco—no waste freight—no marine insurance—no wasteful handling.

The overstock of marvelous metallic brocades from the greatest weaver in the world, bought far below the actual cost of manufacture in France.

The brocades sumptuous with silver and with gold. Plenty of the scarce white and silver and black and gold combinations. Designs including Hindoo, Renaissance, Serbian, Chinese, Byzantine, old Dutch, old Italian, Gothic, Persian, Japanese, Grecian, Ecclesiastical and modern. Tissues rich and beautiful yet supple and without weight suitable for the slender lines of the latest French gowns. Priced $8.50 to $25 yard.

Surplus of the newest metal brocades of Lyons secured far below regular rates from a large American importer.

A silver cloth with exaggerated tulips in white satin and with a satin back, splendid enough for a coronation gown. Metal satin, metal taffetas, sprays of roses outlined in silver or roses entirely of silver frost work; and many other fairy-like patterns of incredible richness and beauty. $6.50 to $30 yard.

Velvets just off the steamers from France bringing the later shades used in Paris.

The new demi-straight pile dress velvet in colors, $9.50 yard. Other colored French velvets, $6.50 upward. Black velvets, $3.25 to $12.50 yard.

EXHIBIT 5

Satin, the silk all Paris is wearing, in a wealth of qualities and light and dark shades.

$1.25 to $4.50 yard. Satin Rits, 64 inches wide, forty colors, $3.95 yard. Exquisite bridal satins.

EXHIBIT 6

Original, exclusive Wanamaker designs in irresistible Soiree embroidered in silver.

Inspired largely by things Chinese and by the costumes of the Russian ballet. Enchanting colors. $5.50 to $10.50 yard.

EXHIBIT 7

Original, exclusive designs in evening wrap and fur coat linings of soft silk, mostly taken from Persian and China, including the Prince Igor stripe, $3.50 yard.

EXHIBIT 8

Filmy silks such as crepe Georgette, chiffon, voile, crepe Caprice and the new Venetia; also self-colored and two-colored silk brocades, and a remarkable collection of distinguished black silks.

Massive Sterling Silver At Extraordinary Prices

SALE of Sterling Silver Table Services started off with a rush yesterday. Before 9 o'clock the one tea set at $125 had gone. Before 11 o'clock the $685 set was sold several times over. At this writing we cannot tell how many tea sets will be left tomorrow. All are beautifully designed and massive, however, and most of them are priced half less than standard rates.

But there are small pieces in plenty at 20 to 50 per cent. less. Designs are perfect, shapes just what people of good taste prefer, and again one will remark the substantial weight of the silver.

Mayonnaise set in case, standard $20 grade, now $13.50.

Dozen individual almond dishes, one serving spoon, in case, standard $42 grade, now $21.

Dozen ramikins with silver frames, standard $50 grade, now $31.

Five o'clock sandwich trays, standard $9.50 to $30 grades, now $5.75 to $21.

Candlesticks, standard $20 to $28 grades, at $15 to $16.50.

Compotes, standard $28 and $47 grades, at $13.50 and $27.

Charming bonbon dishes, standard $18.50 and $25 grades, at $7.50 and $11.

Bread trays, standard $27 grade, at $12.50.

Picture frames, standard $15 to $28 grades, at $8.25 to $16.

N. B.—Of many of the pieces there is only one of the kind and it cannot be duplicated.
